PRODUCTREQUEST FOR REFUNDCommissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

Upon review of the Monthly Statement of Deposit Account of 6-30-03 (copy enclosed) errors were found. In particular, a fee of $750.00 for application serial No. 09/800,792 for request for continued examination (fee code 1801) and a fee of $110.00 for extension of response within first month (fee code 1251) were charged to Koda & Androlia Deposit Account No. 11-1445 in error.

Applicant respectfully submits that the above-identified patent application serial No. 09/800,792 does not match Applicant's records. Moreover, as can be seen from the attached U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0127304, application serial No. 09/800,792 appears to belong to Wood, Herron & Evans, LLP of Cincinnati, OH. Accordingly, it is believed that these fees of $750.00 and $110.00 should be charged to Wood, Herron & Evans, LLP.

It is therefore respectfully requested that the fees of $750.00 and $110.00 be credited to the account of the undersigned, namely Koda & Androlia Deposit Account No. 11-1445.

Respectfully submitted,

860.00

A method and product for marketing and selling cotton candy comprises forming cotton candy from molten sugar to form a fluffy wad of cotton candy and positioning the fluffy wad of cotton candy in a rigid, sealed container through an opening in the container. The rigid container defines a static volume which surrounds the cotton candy wad and generally prevents the wad from being easily compressed. The rigid container is sealed with a lid which covers the opening in an airtight fashion and further defines a generally airtight static volume within the container for surrounding the wad of cotton candy. The wad of cotton candy in the rigid container is presented for direct consumption by a consumer from the container.
